At the Bemis Library, the Friends:

- 🔗 Fund programs for all ages—from bouncing babies to seniors.
- 🔗 Provide special equipment—from furnishings, computers and software to teddy bears.

At the Littleton Museum, the Friends:

- 🔗 Fund the purchase of Living History Farm items—everything from cows, pigs, and chickens to garden seeds.
- 🔗 Fund the purchase of collection and display materials.
- 🔗 Sponsor special workshops and traveling exhibits.

As a Friend You Will Receive:

🔗 A chance to meet wonderful, involved people who serve our community. You will be a member of an organization that since 1963 has provided ongoing sponsorship to ensure the Bemis Public Library and the Littleton Museum remain vital links to our future—and our past.

🔗 The Friends monthly newsletter The Oracle to keep you up to date on all upcoming Friends events and activities as well as numerous programs sponsored by the Friends at the Library and Museum.

🔗 Optionally, the Friends monthly e-mail newsletter The digital Oracle.

🔗 Invitations to Friends Only events.

🔗 A copy of the Friends annual Members Directory (paper or digital format).

🔗 A members 10% discount on merchandise purchased in the Museum Store.

🔗 Opportunities to help host Friends events at the Library and Museum.

🔗 Priority reservations for The Old Forts Society's tours and trips.

🔗 Since 2003, the Littleton Museum has been an Affiliate of the Smithsonian Institute. Through the Museum's affiliation and a Friends membership ($15 annually), you can also become a Smithsonian Affiliate Member for an additional $12 annually. As an Affiliate Member you will receive your choice of either 11 issues of the Smithsonian Magazine or 6 issues of Air & Space Magazine along with discounts on Smithsonian travel programs, shopping, dining, study tours, and much more.
